J. B. CROFOOT, MANUFACTURER IS DEAD

Originator of Famed Stapling Devices; Was in Failing Health Three Months.

Mr. J. B. Crofoot, president and founder of the firm of J. B. Crofoot Co., Mt. Prospect, Ill., passed away Tuesday evening, Sept. 15, after several months illness. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 p. m. at the Lutheran church, 111 West Campbell street, Arlington Heights. Interment will be at Beaver Dam, Wis., the following day.

Deceased, with his son, Elisha Crofoot, invented, took out patents and improved the Crofoot tacker and associated machines starting their manufacturing in Chicago about 30 years ago. Desiring additional room they were attracted to Arlington Heights fifteen years ago, where they acquired property at the southwest corner of State road and Wing street, which was subsequently sold to the J. Lindner when the Crofoot firm acquired a two story factory building at Mt. Prospect where the manufacture of staples and stapling machine has been carried on the past ten years.

With new improvements and new patents the Crofoot tacker became known throughout this and foreign countries and the business increased in extent, the management falling upon Mr. Crofoot personally after the death of his son, Dec. 14, 1934. The loss of the latter was a great shock to the father, but he continued the management of the company, doing a large part of the outside work personally with the result that his health became undermined and he became so ill in June of this year, that he had to give up all business associations.

Mr. Crofoot was not only a good business man, but made friends easily and had a large circle of warm friends throughout the business world. He was public spirited and ever ready to give his support to worthy community movements. While his business was at Mt. Prospect, he resided the past 15 years in Arlington Heights, which he was proud to call home.

John B. Crofoot was born in Turin, N. Y., April 18, 1862. After securing all the education that was available there, he traveled west to Rochester, Minn., where he completed his school work and became a teacher in Minnesota, later returning to New York, his home state. While acting as principal at Port Leyden, N. Y., he met Miss Mary L. Hills, who was teaching in the Turin schools, his home town. They were married Dec. 2, 1886. They moved to New York and Mr. Crofoot became interested in insurance, which business was followed by him until early in this century, when he entered the manufacturing business.

In the meantime a son had been born and their home became Beaver Dam, Wis., where his remains will rest upon the family lot beside the son, who was taken in his prime of life.

There remain his wife, daughter-in-law, two grandchildren.

Republican Committee-men Meet Landon at Home of Geo. Harding

All of the Township committee-men of the Northwest country towns had the privilege of meeting Gov. Landon, Republican candidate for president, at the Evanston home of George Harding last Friday.

Gov. Landon, in speaking of the incident, stated that the personality of the governor is so far apart from that of the customary politician, or public man, that he at once won the hearts of those who met him that day, and that he believes that the more people of this nation who have the opportunity of meeting Gov. Landon, the greater will be his majority in November. "He is a man who creates confidence," continued Mr. Volz.

Greyhound Bus To Make Regular Stops At Mt. Prospect

Arrangements have been made with the Northland Greyhound Lines to have a regular pick-up and discharge stop at the Mount Prospect Pharmacy, where time tables and general information may be obtained.

Bus travel in the last few years has become one of the major means of transportation and with the new streamlined Greyhound buses, the acme of comfort has been attained. The Northland Greyhound Lines buses travel in all directions, on regulated schedules from the Twin Cities, north, south, east and west. The Greyhound system today is America's largest traveling system consisting of over 45,000 miles of route from coast to coast and border to border.

Bus travel is modern travel and a regular stop here in Mt. Prospect should prove to be a modern convenience.

BOARD SIGNS NEW SWIMMING POOL SETUP

Decide Field House Should Be Part of Project; Plans Rushed to Washington.

The fate of the proposed field house that was originally designed to be a part of the swimming pool project for Arlington Heights, hung by a thread for nearly two hours Monday night. The park board in conference with Arthur Consoer of the engineering firm of Consoer, Townsend & Quinlan, discussed possibilities of lowering costs by eliminating some part of the building. A structure of some sort must be constructed as a part of the pool, if the public is to have a place in which it can do their swimming suits before entering the water.

Upon the decision that evening depended whether or not the president of the park board should sign a new setup that provides an additional share that must be born by the sponsor before the government will give the project its O. K.

A month ago, explained Mr. Consoer, many projects with a 20% sponsoring share were being approved. Suddenly orders came that sponsoring bodies must assume in the neighborhood of 30% of the total cost. The additional payment would mean that the park board would be required to assume responsibility for an increase of about $8,000 of the cost of the project.

For two hours the board and Mr. Consoer talked over eliminating various parts of the building, such as heating, inside trim and part of the plumbing. Finally the board was faced with either building a one story bath house structure that could only be used during the summer, eliminating auditorium, heating plant, etc., signing an application with an increased sponsor's share.

When it was realized that all of these extra improvements which would make the field house complete and which if installed later would cost in the neighborhood of $20,000, could be secured now at an expenditure by the park district of $8,000, the board decided to file the present project with the government.

Before taking such action, upon which the vote was unanimous, the board went into a huddle with Mr. Consoer and Mr. Bell, of the WPA. Ways were discussed whereby economies could be effected in construction and furnishings which would enable the board to keep within its original budget. Thus, while technically the share to be paid by the park board is increased by $8,000, that increase appears on paper only.

Continuation of Recreational Project Up To School Board

The Arlington Heights WPA recreational project which came into real life a month ago after two years efforts, may meet a sudden demise unless the district 25 board is willing to permit the opening of a room or two in the north side school and one room in the southside school for the use of the recreational directors and the children of the community.

Taking the stand that the school children should spend the hours after school and in the evening doing their home work, the board tentatively decided against the plea for recreational quarters. They did, however, vote a two weeks extension for use of the buildings. The two weeks end Saturday night.

There are 150 children registered in the project and the daily attendance numbers about sixty. These children by the abandonment of the project would be deprived of directed play. Perhaps there are a few mothers and fathers who would be sufficiently interested to plan a playtime program, but such a program for the community as a whole would be "out."

An entire truck load of equipment has either arrived or is upon the way. The WPA is paying Arlington Heights recreational supervisors approximately $400 a month, which will also be lost unless suitable quarters can be secured.

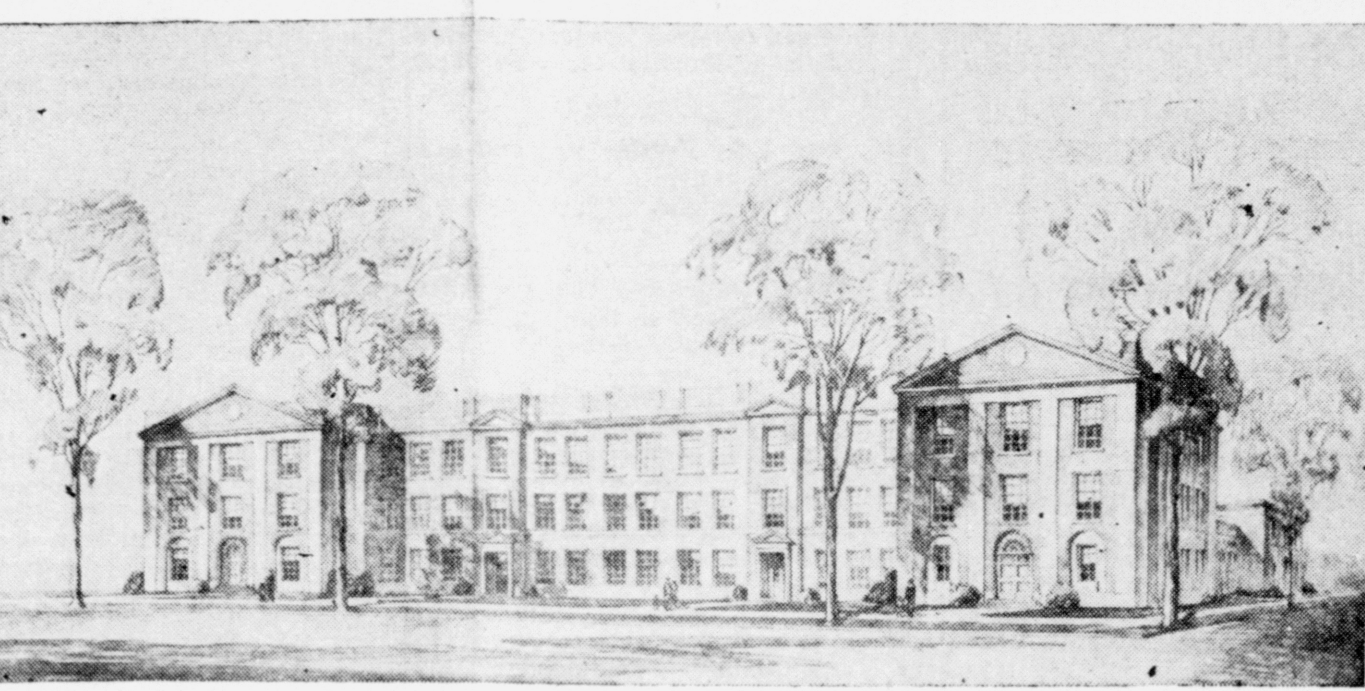

In the meantime the volleyball, basketball, horse shoes, ball and bats for indoor and outdoor games, two ping pong tables, paddles and balls, will be recalled and the children whose mothers and dads do not keep them in their own homes and yards, will be forced to find their recreation upon the streets of the village.

In the great majority of the communities with WPA recreational projects, the school houses are thrown open for such use.

NIGHT STREET LIGHTING IS DEMONSTRATED

Village Officials Attend Demonstration of Sodium-Vapor Lights.

A new lighting system of sodium-vapor lights was turned on experimentally Wednesday night in Skokie road, south of Dundee road, in Northbrook. More than 5,000 persons attended the ceremonies, sponsored by the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois.

Twenty-six lights were turned on. They were placed alternately on each side of the road at intervals of 250 feet. Placed almost over the center of the road they appeared to give unbroken illumination. The light was golden yellow, and without a glare.

According to company engineers, the sodium-vapor lamps give two and one-half times the light that ordinary lamps give, penetrate fog and rain, and make pedestrians or cars visible 2,000 feet away. The lights, which have a life of 2,000 hours, are produced by passing electricity through glass tubes containing sodium.

Village board members, other officials and prominent citizens of nearly all of the villages of the north and northwest territory served by the company were present, inspected the display of modern lighting, heard a talk by a representative of the Chicago Safety Council and took an inspection tour of the newly lighted highway.

Peggy Page Dancing School Makes a Flying Start

Considerable interest is being displayed by people from neighboring communities, as well as Palatine, in the Peggy Page dancing school that opened last week in the I. O. O. F. building in Palatine. As a special feature Howard Wesley, ball room dancing star of stage and screen, will teach class the latest ballroom dancing Thursday, Sept. 24.

It is seldom that such instruction is available in the suburban towns. Many parents are welcoming the opportunity to give their children training in correct dancing.

1937 Illinois Auto Plates to be Black On Canary Yellow

Canary yellow and black will be the color scheme for automobile license plates in 1937, Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes announced this week. The contract for manufacturing plates was awarded to the Chicago Furnace Fitting company, 1714 South Canal street.

The contract calls for the manufacture of approximately 1,500,000 passenger plates and 225,000 truck, motorcycle and trailer plates. The cost to the state will be 9.759 cents per pair.

The numerals on the plates will be in black and the background will be of canary yellow. "19-11111-37" will be above the numerals instead of below. Production will start immediately, Secretary Hughes said.

Police Protection 24 Hours a Day Is Approved by Board

In response to public sentiment, the Arlington Heights village board Monday night approved the appointment of Officer Shock as a permanent police officer with a salary of $125 a month. At the same time the monthly salary of Wm. Luehring, as superintendent of streets and water works was increased $10 a month to a total of $135.

Bloomington, DesPlaines Get New Schools

Three communities northwest of Chicago are receiving new school buildings, or large additions with government aid. Announcement was made last week of a loan of $10,000 and a grant of $8,181 by the PWA to school district No. 13, Bloomington for the construction of a new elementary school building, estimated to cost $18,181. The building will be an irregular shaped one-story structure, 96x226 feet, brick and stone facing and pitched roof.

A grant of $7,772 has also been made by the same agency to complete a partially built two story and basement structure for Riverview school, Des Plaines, on which work has been suspended. The estimated cost of completing the building is $17,272. Four class rooms, kindergarten, library, office and space which can be used as an auditorium and gymnasium will be provided by the building which will replace a frame structure now in use.

Work is expected to be resumed in full swing on the WPA school addition project in Barrington within the coming week.

Construction has now advanced to the third story and the finishing details of the other two floors are being made.

The architect's drawing above shows the new addition at the south end of the present building as it is to be completed in a few years according to the building program. The two wing entrances shown in the sketch are not being erected in the present project.

The new addition without the wings will contain approximately enough space for 18 classrooms, Superintendent Smith reported. He stated the project was started by the board in order to eliminate the crowded condition of the school building and to do it at a time when assistance would be forthcoming from the WPA.

No bond issue or increase in appropriation has been made for the new work, he stated, and the finances have come from back taxes collected in the last two years.

Only the outer structure is being finished now and the rooms will be finished off as they are needed and the board feels it can safely finance the move, it was learned.—Barrington Review.

City Hall for Des Plaines

The village of Des Plaines has received an allocation of $39,920 for the construction of a city hall with combined fire and police headquarters and a library.

Opening of the new school year finds most of the 120 schools and additions undertaken in Illinois with the aid of Public Works Administration funds ready for service. The Public Works Administration school program is providing 187 new buildings, with 1,321 classrooms and numerous special facilities, such as laboratories, shops, lunchrooms, and gymnasiums, in the biggest revival of school construction since the depression, according to Carl H. Bauer, State Director.

The Public Works Administration schools range from one-room additions to country elementary schools through consolidated high schools to the University of Illinois, which is building a huge new dental laboratory building in the medical center on the west side of Chicago.

ELMHURST RD. TO BE PAVED FORTY FEET

State Highway Dept. To Spend $1,667,300 on Rt. 54, South of County Line.

In news dispatches early this week, announcement was made by the state highway department that included in over $8,000,000 construction work, upon which proposals are now out, Elmhurst road as route 54 is included to the extent of $1,667,300.

The story states that two 20 ft. slabs are going to be laid between North avenue in Elmhurst and Higgins road, 8.26 miles north. This will mean a forty foot pavement between those two points. At the same time, probably some way will be found to curb the so-called "black sea" north of Bensenville that goes on a rampage every time there is excessive rain fall.

Part of the money will be spent in improvements on this highway in the southern part of DuPage county.

Park Bd. Approves Dug Outs for Diamond, But Turn Down Engineer Fee

After the park board had "ironed out" the swimming pool project Monday night, official action was taken for the purchase of the park property and the necessary resolution was approved.

During the discussion Mayor Flentie asked the park board to pay the engineer's fee of $600 incurred by the village in the park improvement. Mr. Flentie explained that the village had paid all other costs connected with the improvement, but thought it was only fair that the park board assume the $600 charge as the completed project was being acquired by the park district at no expense other than the purchase price of the land itself.

All members of the park board voted to deny the request except commissioner Windheim, who was "not voting."

Mayor Flentie then advised the park district that the local ball players had asked that two dugouts be installed but the cost for materials would be about $100. The park board by a vote of four to one (Crane voting no), authorized the payment of $100 for such a purpose.

Rain Postpones Glenview Days To This Week

Glenview Days will be held Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 19 and 20, with the full scheduled program. The severe storm of last week-end forced the postponement to this week.

Glenview was one of the first communities in Cook county to hold community days and has always arranged a program that is civic in nature. The wet weather early this week has not dampened the ardor of the Glenview people for a big celebration and they are planning upon even a greater crowd than usual. Announcement of the attractions will be found on page six of this issue.

Upon the return of that card to the county clerk, and in time for the election a ballot will be mailed to them upon which they can record their vote.

Arlington State Stockholders To Receive Dividend

A series of dividends for closed banks of this area is expected before September 30 by Deputy Receiver Louis E. Nelson. In an announcement from his office at Melrose Park, Mr. Nelson announced "before September 30" dividends of five per cent for the Barrington State, Arlington Heights State and Park Ridge State banks. He anticipates that the Des Plaines State will pay five per cent before the end of the year.

The Barrington dividend, the second this quarter, brings the total refund to depositors to 50 per cent. $17,000 to Arlington depositors in the form of 5 per cent dividend checks, brings the refund to 15 per cent.

Barrington Bank Building Sold
The First State bank building has been sold to a syndicate of men of that and nearby communities with title taken by Dr. B. P. Graber. The building was sold at a gross total of $13,000. It was built at a cost of more than $20,000, and during the active years of the First State bank was carried on the books, along with banking fixtures and furniture, at $21,000. The furniture and fixtures were worth several thousand dollars leaving a conservative net book value of $17,000 to $18,000 for the building.

The present renter, The Bank Tavern, will continue to occupy the building for at least a year, it was reported.

High School Talent Tests Show Good Results

A great deal of interest has been aroused in the discovering of the students who possess the most musical talent in the Arlington high school.

Two hundred have already been tested, and many more have expressed their desire to take the test which shows the students what talent they possess along musical lines. Of the one hundred twenty-five Freshman, perfect papers were written by Esther Geisel, Sylvia Devan, Jean Bolton, Warren Hendon, Robert Peterson, Ruth Hildebrandt, Roland Koenig, and Anita Weisgerber. This does not guarantee that the student with a high grade will be a fine singer or instrumentalist, but it does mean that he has a definite talent for music in the form of rhythm recognition and pitch discrimination.

Sixty-five Freshmen have expressed their desire to join the band if instruments can be secured for them, and a number have tried out for the mixed chorus.

New Rental Plan

Mr. Costain has a new plan which will be of interest to all parents interested in securing an instrument for their boy or girl who has done well in the talent test. For as low as three dollars a month, an instrument may be rented from a reliable Chicago music company. At the end of three months, the rental will apply toward the purchase price if the student has done well and kept up his interest. Small monthly payments can be made for the balance. If the student does not do well, the only obligation is to return the instrument.

Three months rental is a small investment to discover the student's possibilities, and practically all parents would be glad to buy their boy or girl a horn if they just knew that he or she possessed talent and could learn the instrument.

Free Music Lessons

Free music lessons will be given to all high school students passing the talent test. The cost of lessons alone for a year or two would buy an instrument.

Now is the time to get your child started in band work, which carries regular school credit—because he or she will have an equal opportunity to learn along with the many others who are just starting.

FLOODS DAMAGE CROPS, BLOCK HIGHWAYS

Heavy Rainfall Floods Basements and Stalls Motorists.

In a 48-hour rain which ended Sunday afternoon, the house holder, farmer and autoist were reminded of old time spring floods with water in basements, fields under water and blocked roads and stalled autos.

With the greatest drought in Illinois for August in half a century, there was a record rainfall of over 4 inches. Nature demonstrated its independence. The huge sewer system at Arlington Heights with its six and seven foot mains were filled. The pressure of water was so great that large geyers were formed at the 8x12 ft. outlet. Man-hole covers were lifted up and the entire police, and street department were called out Sunday to remove debris from catch basin inlets to relieve flooded conditions on pavements.

While homes along the lines of the large sewers experienced only wet basements, there were many homes on streets with small sewers, which had two to four feet of water. The fire department was called out to pump water out of the kilns at Arlington Seating Co. South Mitchell, Arlington Park subdivision and North State road were the hardest hit.

In the district served by the big sewer there were very few homes with water in the basements. This was the heaviest rainfall in a great many years and the big sewer system proved adequate. The few exceptions were in neighborhoods where small laterals exist. Many of the highways were blocked. Young boys hastily attired in swimming suits earned spending money pushing stalled cars through flood portions. Viaducts were flooded and turned in old swimming hole by the youngsters.

With two days of intense heat following the inundation of fields of growing crops, farmers expressed great fears as to the damage that might result. It is too early yet to know to what extent growing corn and other crops are damaged.

Roselle road between Palatine road and Algonquin road was one of the worst inundated highways in this part of the county. It was closed to traffic three days. Water was four feet high. Two young ladies returning home from Chicago Sunday evening drove their car into the "lake" and water reached the car seat before they realized their predicament.

Quentin road, upon which road improvement is being made is impassable. Salt creek, through which ordinarily flows the sewage of Palatine, swept over its banks flooding cellars and closing roads. Mt. Prospect was rather badly hit by the excessive rain fall. The basements in all of the homes up on some of the streets were flooded, while the homes on other streets were not effected.

In the neighborhood of Wheeling the Wheeling road south of the R. R. depot and Hinz road were blocked and the mail carriers were not able to get through.

Addison Orphan Festival To Be Next Sunday

The annual orphan festival, which is always held on the second Sunday in September, has been postponed until Sunday, September 20th, because of the rain. The terrific storm on Friday night did quite a lot of damage to our grounds and the tents; a number of the tents were blown down and four of them torn, and one of the two-inch iron pipes badly bent. The continued rain from Friday to Sunday afternoon soaked the grounds so badly that it would have been impossible to park a car.

There were pleasing games and choice refreshments and the delectable delicious cake brought in to add to the many made by two little girls with their own little hands. These girls were Dorothy Schwanke and Katharine Heinz.

After one year of absence, on account of sickness, Teacher Landeck is back teaching again. He now teaches the 3rd and 4th grades. Friends and members of St. Peter's church and school are glad to see him back, hope to see him many more years in the school faculty.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steffen, Billingham, Minn., visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wasser.

The Three Links club of Palatine Rehearsal lodge will hold a bingo party at the I. O. O. F. hall, Palatine, Tuesday, September 22, at 8 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Here is something about one of our bright little girls, yes, September 7, Lorraine Fiene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fiene, reached her 10th birthday, a big date for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Wayman of West Wing street are enjoying a two week's vacation and motor trip. In their absence their cousin, Miss Mabel Wayman will have the care of their children in their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Luerssen are parents of a son born September 8, 1936, in Arlington Heights.

Over one hundred guests of the P. T. A. enjoyed a luncheon and card party given at Barrington Tuesday. The Jewel Tea company was host to the unusual affair. Prizes in the reciprocity of which all seemed to share.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Meyer left home last week on a vacation motor trip. They won't likely find a hotter place than this. Their plan was to go to DeKalb and from there through Iowa and Minnesota.

Mr. Henry Wing from Maquoketa, Iowa, has been visiting his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Ackley, the past week.

WHO IS WHO IN ARLINGTON

C. L. GRIFFITH

Perhaps you never saw C. L. Griffith, commander of Merle Guild Post of the American Legion, with a baseball in his hand, but the kids around his neighborhood call him a good baseball sport. His interest in sports for the young people extends to the boys and girls of the entire town and he is taking an active part in the Arlington Heights recreation association which is fostering supervised play during vacation time.

Griffith is supposed to earn his bread, and butter as an insurance office in Arlington Heights, but he has given so much of his time to the legionnaires that he has had to work nights to handle both jobs. He admits that at times he has been urged to lock his doors to keep out the gang, but C. L. is not made that way.

Yes, Mr. Griffith is "for" the new bank and also "for" every community project that is beneficial to Arlington Heights.

Holy Name Society

The regular monthly meeting of the Society was held Tuesday evening, Sept. 8, 1936.

Several interesting subjects were discussed, among them, a Kent game to be held Thursday evening, Oct. 8, 1936, which was approached from several different angles, ways of increasing membership, and entertainment, keeping our younger members interested in the welfare of the organization. These topics were enlarged upon by the members present. In this manner thoughts and ideas of the members were brought out.

It is with great pleasure that we here and now add to the roster of the Society, the name of Harvey Knox. Mr. Knox, you are to be congratulated, and we welcome you into our society. We hope that you shall like meeting our members, and enjoy all of our future gatherings. Smiling Joe Moran had more smiles than usual, we wonder why? Ask lucky Joe.

Anyone interested in an athletic mat, complete, should contact our worthy president, Clarence Weber.

Our hard working brother, John Kindler, met with an accident while at work. At present he is home convalescing. Too bad John, you have the sympathy of all the members.

Father Stier's ethic for the evening was Catholic burial. It was a brief lecture, but a worth while subject. It gave us something to think and talk about. It was food for thought.

Meeting was adjourned, after which our entertainment chairman, John Kindler, took charge, and what an entertainment John turned out. The first on his program was the introduction of Father Hochspiel, S. V. D., from Techny, who for our entertainment gave us in motion pictures, the life of Father Damien, apostle of Lepers. He also exhibited a cross which is the only relic of Father Damien. This show and lecture was superb. Father Hochspiel is a very capable speaker and instructor in our society. We hope that you shall like meeting our members, and enjoy all of our future gatherings. Smiling Joe Moran had more smiles than usual, we wonder why? Ask lucky Joe.

YOU SHOULD BE AFRAID OF THE DARK

Because it feels an obligation to continuously explore and demonstrate new and worth while developments in the use of electricity for personal or public welfare, the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois has undertaken a new and unusual installation of highway lighting, extending for about a mile on Skokie Highway, south of Dundee Road in Northbrook, Illinois. This lighting, installed by the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois in cooperation with the Village of Northbrook as a contribution toward safety on the highways, is a practical demonstration of the fact that proper illumination is a positive influence in the lessening of automobile accidents. It was turned on for the first time this week, under the auspices of

THE CHICAGO SAFETY COUNCIL

Although much good is being derived from the attention given to the appalling toll of fatalities resulting from automobile accidents generally, it is not widely known that the hazard is about six times greater in driving a car after nightfall than it is during the day. Lack of proper visibility, whether from glaring headlights, insufficient lighting of the street or highway, or from other sources, is the major cause of 60% of the automobile fatalities now occurring throughout the Country. Proper highway illumination, of which our new Skokie Highway demonstration is one of several approved methods, can help eliminate this mounting tragedy.

We invite you to see this new lighting and judge its value for yourself.

The pastor kindly invites all others, who for some reason or other have not as yet had the opportunity to turn in their missionary offering envelopes, to try and do so within the next few weeks. May the blessedness of giving to the Cause of Saving the World For Christ cover our entire membership. No matter how great or how small your gift may be according to your faith and ability—it might be sufficient to save one more soul in this world of sin. All we give is blessed in the sight of God.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Substance" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 13.

The Golden Text was, "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen" (Hebrews 11:1).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. Let all the earth fear the Lord: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord: and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance" (Psalms 33:6, 8, 9, 11, 12).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God" (p. 275).

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and children are having a two week's vacation motoring to various places.

Dr. and Mrs. Leckband called on friends one day last week as they were returning from a visit with Mrs. Leckband's relatives in Kentucky. They were going on to Iowa, to visit the Doctor's relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Monroe are now living at 116 So. Walnut. The house at 518 So. Dunton in which they have been living has recently been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Baker.

Mrs. Neil Barr, So. Pine, entertained her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Robinson of Bensenville, Ind., over the week-end.

Saturday, September 12, is a day to be remembered by Bobby Harrah and eleven little friends, who were his guests. Bobby celebrated his seventh birthday at his home in Skarsdale. The children had a lovely time playing their familiar games.

CELEBRATE 76th BIRTHDAY OF WM. HELFERS

WILLIAM NEUMAN HAS FINEST BIRTHDAY PARTY SINCE HE WAS A KID

William Neuman, Arlington Heights barber, says that it has been many a year since he has had as jolly a time as last Saturday evening. He did not know that birthday parties could be so enjoyable. Privately, he was informed that he was quite frustrated with having so many of his friends remember the anniversary of a fellow who has been as many birthdays as he.

The event was held at the home of his father, Albert Neuman, 114 West Sigwalt. The dinner, served to fifty guests was the work of Mr. Neumann's sisters, Mrs. Esther Deiber and Mrs. Martha Grandt.

SEPTEMBER BIRTHDAY BABIES SHARE PARTY

Mrs. Harvey Winkelman, Mrs. G. R. Pierce and Mrs. Ray Bartz are planning to write in an annual birthday party for their children whose birthdays are in September. This year they plan to give the party Sept. 19 in the Redeker cabin.

The guests of honor are Betty Jane and Robert Pierce, Loraine and Ronald Bartz and Norine Ray Winkelman. There are to be choice refreshments such as this wise trio of mothers will know just how to prepare. The children could never have a more delightful place to enjoy their united birthday parties. The cosy cabin, the woods, and all the space to romp and play. We hope the day will be perfect and that mothers and children will be able to place on memories page, a perfect September birthday party.

WILLIAM WICHMAN HAS 81ST BIRTHDAY

William Wichman, 205 W. Wing street, celebrated his 81st birthday Tuesday, Sept. 15. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wichman had dinner with their nephew and family, Henry Carnehl, Wheeling. The afternoon was spent at Northfield with their niece, Mrs. Theodore Stock. Mr. Wichman says that he feels as happy, as spry and as gay as any 30 year old youngster. Their nephew, Wilfred Wichman, of Barrington, is attending the U. of I. at Champaign.

JEWEL TEA CO. GOOD HOSTS TO P. T. A.

The Jewel Tea Co., very graciously entertained about 125 ladies for the P. T. A. of Arlington Heights. The ladies congregated at the plant at 12:15 o'clock. They were escorted by guides in groups of twelve through all the departments. The tour proved very interesting. It climaxed with a delicious luncheon served in the Jewel dining room.

Bridge was the diversion for the remainder of the afternoon. There were seventeen door prizes given which were won by Mrs. Busse, Mrs. Lemke, Mrs. Henke, Mrs. Schaefer, Mrs. Blum, Mrs. Ewart, Mrs. Karstens, Mrs. Connelly, Mrs. Jorstadt, Mrs. Ferdinand, Mrs. Thal, Mrs. Heiber, Mrs. McWhorter, Mrs. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Stejskal, Mrs. Plentic and Mrs. Cooper. The ladies left the home of the Jewel T. Co., complimenting them for a very pleasant party.

CHICAGO BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED WITH SHOWERS MARRIAGE IN OCTOBER

Clara Schrader of Chicago, who is to be the bride of William Helfers in October, was the guest of honor at a bridal shower September 9, at the home of Mrs. Albert Adam, who with Mrs. Herman Meyer were hosts to fifty invited guests. An umbrella, draped in white and blue showered the bride-to-be with rice as it was opened. The presentation of miscellaneous gifts followed. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Louis Wahl, Jr., Mrs. Geo. Framberg, Mrs. Emma Dieball and Clara Schrader.

Clara Schrader was the "victim" of two other showers Friday evening when a number of Arlington Heights friends attended the event at the home of Clara Schrader's mother in Chicago, and given by Mrs. Henry Schrader. Those attending from Arlington Heights were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Adam, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Helfers and Miss Ruth Heffernan.

Echoes of "Show Boat" floating down the Mississippi, rolling across the prairies and out to the sea... Starting way back in 1926 when Edna Ferber's novel scored as a best seller.

Then followed the Kern-Hammernstein production... 17 months on Broadway... a year in London, 1928-29... eight months on the road... revived in New York for an additional eight months in 1932... brought back in London for six months... a favorite in stock... transcribed for a national radio hour... "Show Boat" proves to be another American institution like "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

The 1936 screen version of Universal's "Show Boat," which stars Irene Dunne, will be shown at the Arlington theatre Sunday and Monday. Allan Jones plays the dashing romantic Ravenal opposite Miss Dunne as Magnolia... Charles Winniger as Captain Andy... Helen Morgan as Julie... Paul Robeson, noted baritone... Helen Westley, as the Captain's wife... Queenie Smith and Sammy White for dance specialties... 48 hand-picked beauties for the ensembles.

Dolores Costello Barrymore Returns

Dolores Costello Barrymore makes her return to the screen after four years' absence, sharing stellar honors with Freddie Bartholomew in Selznick International's "Little Lord Fauntleroy," which begins a two day engagement at the Arlington Theatre, Thursday, Friday, Sept. 24 and 25.

The star, who has added her recently divorced husband's name to her own, plays "Dearest," the beautiful and adored young mother of Ceddie Errol, the little American boy who becomes Lord Fauntleroy, in this filmization of the world famous Frances Hodgson Burnett story which marks the first independent production of David O. Selznick. Freddie, of course, plays the title role.

The familiar story, which Hugh Walpole, distinguished novelist, adapted to the screen, is laid in the America and England of 1885 and depicts the softening influence of Fauntleroy's devotion upon his irascible old grandfather, the Earl of Dorincourt.

"Menace" Appears

When the death of the Earl's third son makes Ceddie his heir, the Earl takes the boy into Dorincourt Castle, but refuses to recognize "Dearest," the penniless American girl whom his son had married against his wishes.

However, just when the transformation of the old Earl is complete, his new-found happiness is threatened by the appearance of a woman who claims that her son, an unpleasant brat, is the rightful heir. This situation has the effect of bringing the old Earl and "Dearest" together, and the story ends happily with Ceddie's right to the title of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" definitely established.

ANOTHER REDUCTION IN Long Distance RATES

EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER FIRST

The Illinois Bell Telephone Company announces another reduction in rates for telephone calls to most points where the station-to-station day rate is over $1.10. This reduction applies to both station-to-station and person-to-person rates—day, night and all day Sunday.

Also on person-to-person calls to most points, the station-to-station additional minute rate applies after six minutes of conversation. This is the seventh reduction in the rates for Long Distance calls during the last ten years. It shortens the distance more than ever between friends and relatives in distant places... offers more frequent personal reunions with children at school... the family back home. It permits business men to make contacts in other cities speedily, efficiently... at a still greater economy.

Arlington Heights Football Schedule, 1936

Since last November boys all over the country have been eagerly awaiting this week-end in anticipation of the opening of the 1936 football season. Last Saturday a few scattering games signalled the coming of the fall sport, but this week-end marks the actual beginning of real competition. By the following Saturday quite a number of leagues will have started their regular schedules.

Arlington has been no exception to the rule. One of the biggest squads in the history of the school is now working out daily in anticipation of the opener with Maine high of Des Plaines. For many years Arlington has not been able to defeat Maine at football. Maine's school has grown so rapidly that they have no end of football material. With over a hundred candidates and a large and capable coaching staff they have been at the top or near it in the West Suburban League for a number of years. Last year they won the championship.

However, the most of those who were on their 1935 championship eleven were graduated last spring and practically a new team will take the field Saturday. Ever hopeful as are most youngsters Arlington's squad is determined to be at their best in the effort to turn back Coach Turner's "Blue Shirts" from Maine. Since the game is to be played on Arlington's field Saturday the Cardinals feel that the added incentive of playing before a home crowd may turn the trick for them. It is an unusual thing for a smaller school to be able to bring a school the size of Maine to their home field and Coach Grose feels that he is offering Arlington fans a real treat in showing them the game as played in the West Suburban League.

Arlington was hit hard by graduation last spring. On top of that three of the boys who should have been regulars, and three other regular subs are not on the squad this fall. One of these failed to return to school. Two others elected to drop out of football this year when just arriving at the peak of their game. The remaining three are ineligible, scholastically. Consequently new plans and considerable shifting has been necessary to re-arrange the squad.

With Capt. Turner shifted from end to tackle, three really good tacklers are available with little to choose between them. Bud Harrah and Byron Baxter are the other two. These three should undoubtedly be able to carry the burden well. At the ends two veterans returned. Hanauer will start at the left wing with Bill Annen at the right. Weisgerber and a Frosh, Milligan, are the subs available. At the center of the line Coach Grose's plans were hit hardest. Entirely new replacements had to be made. However, Duthorne at center with Welflin, Rezner and Mills at the guards, look like quite capable adjuncts to the team. Duthorne would have seen more service last year had he not been subbing for Mick Masny at center, one of the "iron men" of the squad.

Chuck Kopplin at fullback is the only veteran on the squad for backfield duty. He is looking good at this position. Mayerck looks like a sure starter at left half. Joe Mueller at right half and Richards at quarter, round out the likely starting backfield. These latter three are light, but fast and real scrappers. Backfield subs are O'Hagan, Rehling and Hull. There are a few others who will be added to the squad, but are as yet undetermined.

While the task of grooming these boys for their first game has been a huge one and is really not yet complete, the squad has worked diligently and has shown a lot of spirit. Undoubtedly with their two non-conference games under their belts they should be in shape to start the conference schedule October 3.

Since football is by far the big school sport all over the country, and since it isn't often such an attraction as Maine can be brought to Arlington the opportunity to witness these two squads in action should not be missed this Saturday. No sport has been so universally well liked and supported as football. Arlington for the past several years have been ardent supporters of the Cardinals. Consequently a real crowd is expected to watch the opening kickoff of the season this Saturday at 2:30.

Town Relief Tax Must Be Paid Opinion Of Woman Legislator

Women of La Grange Think No Relief Will Bring Them House Maids

Rejection of the 3 mill relief tax at the Lyons town meeting in La Grange, dominated by women, is the subject of an editorial in "Commerce," monthly magazine published by the Chicago Association of Commerce.

"The militancy of women has been the turning point on many a critical issue of importance in the development of America. The prim housewives of Colonial New England revolted against a British tea tax, venting their indignation by organizing boycotts and making the pastime of tea drinking a subject of contempt. Thereby began a series of overt acts resulting in the separation of America from the British crown.

"The modern housewives of Cook county, rankled by the failure of their efforts to employ household help, arose and smote the American dole system of 1936 in several townships by packing town meetings and refusing to accede to the adoption of special relief tax legislation.

"In these actions, predicted upon the previous personal question of who's to wash the dishes, may be a turning point in the prodigious public support of unemployed who spurn toil and unemployables whose psychological or physical handicaps prevent them from accepting it.

"Under observation is the case of Lyons township and the town meetings conducted in LaGrange. The meetings were packed and seized by militant women and the soothing persuasions of the more logical minded men were drowned out in decision by practical minded housewives.

"The men asked, 'How will these people eat if we do not feed them?' The women stood on the question, 'How can we get them to work?'

"The women's way seems cruel. In that particular township nearly 400 families would be affected. Women point out that scores of homes want maids for full-time service and cannot get them. They give proof that relief clients spurn even the part-time work which they could have without detection on the part of the relief agency and that it is no longer possible to get a number of a relief family even to stay with the babies while the parents attend an evening movie.

"Some women even experienced a sort of service charge on the part of prospective part-time domestic employees, the demand being for a minimum of $1 as a sort of a service charge.

"In the suburbs a grand sorting out of the deserving and undeserving is going to take place this winter and it may point the way to a widespread collapse of the bureaucratic philanthropic system set up in the last three years.

"The men in this community are still asking the question, 'How are these people going to eat?' but what the women want to know is 'When are they coming to work?'

Crusoe Gone Awry
"Robinson Crusoe" one of the greatest children's classics ever written, was originally intended by the author for the grave London business men and for the seamen of the navy.

Assembly. The down-state members of the legislature are too determined that Chicago and Cook county must levy property taxes for poor relief as many down state cities and counties have been doing, to vote for repeal. The laws will have to be amended to satisfy the legal authorities who pass judgment on tax anticipation warrants so that the banks will purchase them from the townships which passed the levies.

Fred Rohrsen Is Dead at 83

Rohrsen, 83 years old, a former veteran member of the county board of supervisors and a resident of Elgin and the Hanover and Plato townships vicinity for nearly 70 years, died at 8 Monday following a brief illness. They're Building In La Grange Says George Palmer

George Palmer, local plumbing contractor, reports that he has a number of good sized jobs in La Grange and La Grange Park. George has been waiting for building to start in Arlington Heights for some time and is still waiting, but in the meantime he is helping out neighboring communities where more extensive building exists.

Incidentally he has information that a large home building firm of Chicago is considering operations in Arlington Heights. George will be glad to give additional information to any local people who are interested.

Three of the four reaping machines that took prizes at the Paris exhibition of 1855 were owned and manufactured by residents of Illinois.

Drum Communication
As used by the natives of Central Africa drum communication depends on an elaborate code which to one reared in the atmosphere is more dependent on social understanding and mutual recognition of the tone variations than on translation into letters. Travelers, even Europeans, have obtained food and lodging by its means.

I am going to ask a question here on the consumption of gasoline, as it is considered in the speed your car is traveling.

When do you consume the least amount of gas?

(a) At 60 miles an hour, because you are getting somewhere?
(b) At 50 miles an hour?
(c) At 30 miles an hour?

Statistics have given this considerable thought. Gasoline companies report that a car which gets 18 miles per gallon at 30 miles an hour gets only 13 miles at 50 and 10 miles at 60.

Some of you speedsters who brag about covering mileage at unusual speed to the discomfort of pedestrians and the passengers in your car are doing so not only at an increased cost, but also at increased hazards.

Take it easy.

The Oldest Parish
St. John's Episcopal Church at Hampton, Va., is said to be the oldest parish in this country. Established in 1610 it was originally known as Kecoughtan Parish after the Indian settlement of Kecoughtan as Hampton was originally known.

Leningrad, Moscow, Differ

Leningrad and Moscow are like two different countries, rather than cities of the same country. Leningrad reveals much of Peter the Great's fantastic dream of a glittering pseudo-European city transplanted to the Neva. In the ornate city that was St. Petersburg everything of historic interest remains.

Benefit of Clergy

Originally, benefit of clergy was the privilege of exemption from trial by a secular court enjoyed by the clergy if arrested for felony. In time it included all who could read and write, since they were capable of entering into holy orders. It was abolished by George IV. Kipling called one of his stories, "Without Benefit of Clergy," meaning without the religious rites of matrimony.

Voice of People

Candidates, Politicians, Editors
Why silence on the paramount question? Does the Bureau of Engraving print reserve notes on money paper and stamp the government's legal tender, fiat on them for seven mills (.7c) per note which amounts to about thirty cents (30c) for a thousand dollars ($1000.00)? Is that all it costs the bankers to get new money to buy bonds? Please answer.

Yours respectfully,
Old Scout,
Arlington Heights, Ill.

Watching Fishes Beneficial

Watching the rhythmic movements of fishes and the rippling undulations of submarine plant life is beneficial to the overworked nerves of patients, say the doctors. Dietitians agree that fish are as soothing to the senses when alive as they are supposed to be good for the brain when boiled.—Pearson's Weekly.

Plan Annual Financial Drive For Boy Scouts

Tuesday evening of this week the first organization toward the annual Boy Scout campaign was held in the offices of O. G. Barrett. Called at the direction of Les Griffith the meeting was the first step in the drive for the funds necessary to promote Scouting in this, the Northwest Suburban area.

Eleven persons were present, several others being kept away by the severe storm at the time of the meeting. Those in attendance besides Messrs. Barrett and Griffith, were H. Ashton, Mrs. Arthur Schmitz, Tom Wilson, W. A. Miles, Al Long, John L. Grose, Les Moodie, Bob Flentie and George Glow. Scout representatives present were Donald Kyger and Charles S. Stewart of Park Ridge.

It is planned to have the drive the week of October 19-23. On Monday evening, October 19, a dinner will be given at which the various committeemen and workers will be present to get final instructions for the campaign which will begin that night. Plans are being made to conduct the campaigns at Palatine, Barrington and Morton Grove at the same time and to give concerted widespread publicity in behalf of the drive in all the towns at the same time.

Committee chairmen were chosen Tuesday evening. Les Moodie was installed as general campaign chairman and undoubtedly the proper move was made here in selecting this all important executive.

Others appointed were O. G. Barrett, campaign solicitation chairman; W. A. Miles, special gifts; J. L. Grose, publicity; H. Ashton, auditing; Mrs. Arthur Schmitz prospects and rating; and Robert Flentie, dinner committee chairman. The enthusiasm shown Tuesday evening promises a campaign which will outdo even last year's successful drive under the leadership of Mrs. Schmitz. Other people, women as well as men, will be called upon in the near future to assist in this important work and the plans are to be pushed forward culminating in the week as specified.

Arlington P. T. A. Hold First Meeting

The first meeting of the Arlington Heights Parent-Teacher association was held Tuesday evening at the South side school, where the members found an interesting display of flowers and hobbies by the children of the grade schools. (See another column for list of prize winners).

A short business meeting was held with reports from committees. There was entertainment provided by Park Ridge students of Mrs. Comer Rice, a play, "Writing a Book" with Ruth and Dorothy Herold and Carol Schmitz. A monologue "When the Boys Came Home" by Beverly Taylor and a one act play with four characters played by Mabel Eastman, was very entertaining. Light refreshments were served at the close of this happy get-together party.

NEXT YEAR'S STUDEBAKERS ON DISPLAY

Gaare Motor Sales Has Made Eight Sales, Many Admire New Lines.

Studebaker automobiles for 1937 are attracting a lot of admiration of auto users who have inspected the car at Gaare Motor Sales, Arlington Heights dealer. Mr. Gaare reports the sale of ten cars within ten days.

The 1937 Studebakers will be produced in two lines - the President group and the Dictator group. Chassis improvements in the 1937 Studebakers are in the spotlight. Perhaps the most interesting of all is the President's new overdrive transmission and the fact that it is automatically selective.

Underlugs Rear Axles Next in interest to chassis-dissectors is the hypoid rear axle to be used on both President and Dictator models. The outstanding advantage of the hypoid axle is that, due to the lower pinion center line, a lower body floor can be used in the rear compartment without using a tunnel or sacrificing road clearance. On the new Studebakers the floor is 3-1/2 in. lower at the door openings, giving an increase in door height without raising the height of the car.

New Double Drop Frame A third improvement on the 1937 Studebakers is the new double drop frame. This new frame design has the great strength of the box section side rail X-member construction that is found in the 1936 models. On the 1937 Studebakers there will be found new shock absorbers built into the chassis.

The new steering gear on the 1937 models, is known as the twin lever or compound ratio type, so called because two studs are in engagement with the cam in contrast to the single stud heretofore employed.

Automatic "Hill Holder" The automatic "Hill Holder," a safety feature pioneered last year by Studebaker, will be found on the 1937 models. The outstanding feature of the 1937 Studebaker "appearance" is the new horizontal grid radiator and the manner in which the grids swing back to become louvers at the bottom of the beautiful one-piece hood.

Oil Cleaner and Overdrive For 1937 all Studebakers have as standard equipment Fram oil and motor cleaners and motorists will be advised that oil need never be changed (except for the summer and winter season changes) if a new Fram cartridge is installed whenever the dip-stick shows that the oil has become dirty.

The deep, full, one-piece fenders blend into the radiator contours. The headlamp position has been raised. Exterior hardware is artistically streamlined. Fenders are "faired" to reduce wind resistance. Trunks are definitely part of the original design. Wheels are solid discs.

Leg And Head Room To Spare In the interiors Studebaker has placed many features that contribute to comfort. Door openings are higher. The use of the hypoid gear and double-drop frame has enabled the body engineers to increase leg room.

The luggage compartments of custom sedans, including space for the spare tire, now have 17.4 cubic feet capacity and those of cruising sedans have 22 cubic feet capacity. One of the most interesting features of the new models is the adoption of rotary door latches.

Another noteworthy feature is the built-in defrosting equipment which is quickly adaptable when a heater is installed in the car. Two air ducts are built into the top of the instrument panel, opening just below the rear of the windshield.

Chair Height Seats Although the floors have been dropped, the seat cushions remain in the same position, thus giving "chair-height" seating. Improved straight seats are found in all two-door St. Regis Sedans.

The entire body shells of the new Studebaker models are made of steel-top, sides, ends and floors - entirely free from wooden members. The interiors all reflect the genius of Miss Helen Dryden, famous New York designer. Miss Dryden's flair for interior decorating may be noticed in the blue and gray upholstery of the tan and dark-colored cars and a tan fabric in the light-colored cars. Window garnish mouldings match the instrument panels. Chromium plated hardware adds distinction. Steering wheel, horn button and gear shift knob match the instrument panel and glove compartment door. Instrument dials have been designed in the modern manner and permit quick reading in daylight or darkness. Radio and clock units, when installed, blend harmoniously with the instrument motifs. The ash tray recedes into the dash panel.

Now that the Legion of Decency has done such a good job of bringing the major movie producers to their senses, why not a little concerted action against the makers of so-called sex-education atrocities. Produced by independents in two by four studios with a cast of down and outers that are willing to do anything for a few dimes, they are circulated out through the country by agents who sell them to exhibitors who fall for the "risque" titles thinking they will pack their theaters, (and they usually do) but I do not believe any theatre operator ever gains a thing by showing them, for he is bound to offend his regular patrons.

There is always a smooth talking "doctor" who accompanies the showing of the film to make a speech between the main picture and the Caesarian operation, giving to the "morons" assembled, the "facts of life." At the close of the lecture, books are sold to the gullible, which are supposed to contain those bits of information which even the doctor dare not speak of. Sometimes the "do" is a lady (?), and this always makes it even more interesting to the men. I have yet to ask some one what the show was like and not get the answer, "Ah Heck, there wasn't anything to it." And still, the next one that comes along will find him sitting in the front row. Ah me, this endless quest for sex-knowledge.

The fact the pictures are usually more crude than dirty, does not excuse their existence. The advertising used to promote them is obnoxious, making liberal use of nudes in broken hearted poses, the principle, back of their promotion is cheap, and though they always advertise "No One Under 16 Years Admitted," you will never find boys and girls several years shy of 16 being refused admission. Although they may not actually see anything that will do them any great harm, for after all, outright obscenity in pictures is a Federal offense, but failing to get the information they seek, may lead to seeking other sources of information.

Semi-Pros of Early 90's Hold Reunion

Alderman George Schaefer, of Arlington Heights, who was a member of the Chicago Normals in the years of 1905-6-7, and Percy Hertel, who was with the Logan Squares in those days, were reminded of their semi-pro baseball days by a reunion of the old timers held Monday evening. Other renowned teams of those days were the Guenther's and the West Ends.

The baseball fans of thirty years ago will recall the interest that existed in those teams at that time. Returns Home With Championship Geo. Schaefer, Jr., a member of the Davenport, Iowa team has returned home with the satisfaction of doing his part in winning the championship of the Western League for his club. His team won that honor the past season and also established a world's record of 27 put outs in a regular game without an assist.

A & P Stores Feature Another Sales Contest

A. & P. customers in Arlington Heights can expect some real fancy bargains during the next seven weeks as the second sales contest of the year gets under way. 55 specials are announced this week in local stores and during the succeeding weeks others will be announced.

Arlington's A. & P. stores finished first and second in the last sales competition, put on by the company in midsummer, between a large number of outlying establishments. Whether they can repeat depends upon their patrons whose support put them over before. As an added impetus, awards up to $100 will be awarded winning managers and clerks.

PIX PICKS . . .

"Swing Time" . . . Best Fred Astaire-Ginger Rogers picture to date.

"My American Wife" . . . Not heavyweight material, but a swell picture to sit back and enjoy. Fred Stone proves he will be even a bigger star in pictures than he was on the stage and Francis Lederer's interpretation of a foreign count turned American will make you glad you're a Yankee.

"The Gorgeous Hussy" . . . A triumph of motion picture artistry. Joan Crawford is definitely on the come-back trail and the supporting cast turns in splendid performances. And how the girls will weep when Robert Taylor gets killed. Say what's that guy got that I lack?

Fields Show Merry Tale of Carnival

By all odds the most hilarious, laugh-filled achievement of the career of America's dean of all comics is "Poppy," W. C. Fields film which opens Sunday at the Des Plaines Theatre.

The picture is the first to give Fields fans (i. e. 99.44 per cent of the movie public), a really satisfying quantity of the master's tomfoolery at a sitting. Though the romance of Rochelle Hudson and Richard Cromwell is skillfully woven into a dominant position in the plot, "Poppy" is pure Fields, from start to final fade-out.

The comedian appears as a patient medicine vendor who roves from carnival to carnival in the day of their prime, the 1880's. With him travels his ward, Miss Hudson, an eighteen-year-old girl who has spent all her life in the glitter of side-show business.

In a small town where Fields sets up his medicine show - and quiet shell game - Rochelle meets and falls in love with Richard Cromwell, a village youngster who is the son of the mayor. The comedian, scenting money, fakes up a plan to obtain for Rochelle and himself an unclaimed estate in the town.
